Mount Mercy Academy Sports Round-Up

Varsity Basketball

The Mount Mercy Academy Varsity Basketball team split two games last week. The Magic opened its action for the week against Olmstead and won 66-43. The Magic’s outside shooting was on target during this game as the team hit seven three pointers. Junior Emily Kessler (West Seneca) led the offense with 20 points. Senior Tierney Ashe (Buffalo) chipped in with 15 points, including three treys. Juniors Hannah Fredo (Buffalo) and Catherine Zak (Hamburg) added ten and nine points, respectively. Zak, along with junior Megan Reilly (Buffalo) each tallied two three point baskets.

In its second game the Magic battled league opponent Sacred Heart and lost 65-44. Mount Mercy started slowly in the first and third quarters and this allowed Sacred Heart to build a lead that the Magic could not overcome. Fredo topped the scoring for Mount Mercy with 13 points and Kessler added 11. Junior Cecilia Strang (Westfield) chipped in with nine points.

Varsity Bowling

The Mount Mercy Academy Varsity Bowling team continued its strong season, defeating both Nardin and Sacred Heart 4-0.
