Mount Mercy Bowlers Roll to Special Honors

Two of the members of the third place Mount Mercy Varsity Bowling team recently received special honors at the All-Catholic Championships. Junior Kelly Thomas and sophomore Elizabeth Acevedo were recognized for their outstanding achievements.

"Even though we did not achieve any team honors, I am very proud of Liz and Kelly's individual achievements," Coach Fred Kirisits remarked.

Thomas, the team captain, was honored for achieving the high single game, totaling a 235. Her 148.25 average was the second highest in the league and earned her First Team All-Catholic Honors. Thomas is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thomas, Jr. of Buffalo.

Acevedo was honored for recording the highest three game series in the league with her score of 553 (207, 185 and 161). Her 207 was the second highest game in the league this year. Acevedo is the daughter of Ms. Karen Baumet of Cheektowaga.
