Mount Mercy Sports Round-Up

Cross Country

Mount Mercy Academy freshman Grace Harrington (West Seneca) continued her excellent running at the All-Catholic Meet held at Knox Farm State Park. Harrington finished sixth overall with a time of 20:42.68. Her finish earned her First Team All-Catholic honors. Senior Claire Koessler (Derby) ended her cross country career with a time of 22:50.54 in 29th place. Freshmen Bella Morcelle (West Seneca) and Xoie Ferrentino finished seconds apart in 37th and 39th place, respectively. Alison Marabella (Cheektowaga) ended her career with a 46th place finish. Freshman Megan Jobson (Orchard Park) and junior Chloe George placed 47th and 48th. Mount Mercy finished in seventh place overall.

Varsity Volleyball

The Mount Mercy Magic advanced into the semi-finals of the Monsignor Martin League Playoffs but ran into perennial power Saint Mary's of Lancaster. Although the team gave it all they had, Mount Mercy lost in three games. Seniors Clare McKeone (Hamburg) and Erin Sliwinski (Orchard Park) finished their careers with strong defensive efforts. Junior Emily Lewandowski (East Aurora) set well and contributed some strong hits. Also blocking well was freshman Chloe McHugh-Freedenberg (Lakeview).
