MOUNT MERCY ACADEMY HONORS WINTER SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

Mount Mercy Academy recently held its Second Quarter Honors Assembly. Thirty-seven students were designated as Scholar-Athletes. Scholar Athlete Honors are given to all students who participate on an interscholastic team and maintain an academic average of at least 90 percent for that academic quarter. Athletic Director Douglas Webster announced the honorees.

Three athletes from the third place varsity bowling team were honored. Junior Kelly Thomas and sophomores Elizabeth Acevedo and Chloe Manikowski all had averages of at least 90 percent.

Eight members of the varsity basketball team were recognized. Honored were senior Olivia Balys and juniors Mallory Ashe, Anne Bamrick, Beth Hughes, Abigail Krug, Marisa May, Clare McKeone and Grace O'Neil.

All five members of the Monsignor Martin hockey team achieved Scholar-Athlete status. Team members are seniors Brigid Keane and Catherine Radwan, juniors Julia Ahr and Brianna Gawronski and sophomore Fiona Danahy.

Seniors Molly Bardwell and Alyssa Derwin lead the list of ten Scholar Athletes from the cheerleading squad. Also honored were juniors Hannah Colin and Kate Haettich, sophomore Erin Witek and freshmen Leiann Elminowski, Julia Jaworski, Isabella Longo, Breanna Sikora and Madeline Szwed.

Eleven members of the junior varsity basketball team were recognized as Scholar Athletes. Recognized were sophomores Emma Fredo, Paris Green, Abigail Hillery, Julia Khoury and Naomi Parisi and freshmen Megan Cycon, Olivia Nasternak, Angelina Pacholczak, Mariah Rullan, Taylor Stoklosa and Josslynn Strang.
