

Summer Enrichment Opportunity Programs

All opportunities are listed alphabetically

Please refer back to this page, as it will be updated throughout the school year.

Last updated 12/4/2018

For a full database that logs numerous different summer programs, please visit www.summerprogramsearch.com.

Adelphi University: Residential Summer Pre-College Program that runs from July 21 – August 3, 2018. Pursue credit-bearing and noncredit courses in the following disciplines: Nursing, Game Programming, Psychology, The Arts, Sciences and Health Professions. For more information, call 1-800-ADELPHI or visit www.precollege.adelphi.edu/programs/

Babson College: Babson's Summer Study is a residential program for rising high school juniors and seniors that gives you real-world experience while building your business knowledge and entrepreneurial skills. Summer Sessions run on the following dates:

- July 6th - August 4th, 2019

Boston University Academy of Media Production (AMP): a summer experience that runs from July 8 – August 3, 2019. It is designed for bright and creative rising sophomores, juniors and seniors who are eager to develop their cinematic and journalistic storytelling skills. For more information, please visit www.academyofmediaproduction.com/amp/#page_2.

Brown University Pre-College Programs: For information on several different pre-college programs offered during the school year and online for high school students, please visit www.brown.edu/academics/pre-college/overview.php.

Canisius College "Be the Light Theology Institute": The Be the Light Youth Theology Institute at Canisius College is a seven-day, on-campus institute for theology in the Catholic, Jesuit tradition for rising high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors. The session runs from July 21 – July 27, 2019

Canisius College "Explore Canisius" Summer Honors Program: The Explore Canisius program gives students have the opportunity to earn transferable college credit while in high school. The program allows academically qualified high school students in their junior and senior year a chance to experience taking a college level course on our campus. This is for rising seniors with a GPA of at least 3.0 Students admitted into this program will take college courses at a special cost of $300. Registration can be found online, please visit <https://www.canisius.edu/admissions/undergraduate-admissions/pre-college-programs>.

Carnegie Mellon University: Summer Pre-College Programs that run from July 1 – August 9, 2019. Several programs available in the Fine Arts: Architecture, Art & Design, Drama, Music, and National High School Game Academy. For more information or to register, please visit <https://admission.enrollment.cmu.edu/pages/pre-college/>.

Cleveland Institute of Art: Pre-College Programs run from July 7 – July 19 & July 21 – August 2, 2019. Spend two weeks experiencing life as an art and design student. For more information, a full list of programs, and to register, please visit www.cia.edu/continuing-education/pre-college.

Duke University Summer College: This is for High School Sophomores and Juniors, and it runs from July 7 – August 2, 2019. Earn college credit and experience authentic college residential life. Applications are now open! There is also a Summer Academy available that includes noncredit bearing courses. For more information or to register, please visit <https://summersession.duke.edu/high-school-students/summer-college-for-high-school-students>.

Duke University Youth Programs: Each summer, approximately 650 youth from around the nation and world attend one of the 13 different programs for students from grades 6 – 11. All programs seek to engage learners in innovative, interactive and transformative learning experiences. Co-curricular social and recreational activities are carefully planned and delivered to complement the instructional day. The camp “learning community” approaches learning as a shared responsibility among students, instructors, and counselors. For more information and to register for programs, please visit <https://learnmore.duke.edu/youth>.

Emory University: Pre-College Programs are available for applicants at least 15 years of age (16 years of age for lab courses) by the date of attendance and must have completed the 10th or 11th grade in high school. Students should be highly motivated and committed to engaging in college-level work during the summer. There are several different sessions available. Applications are now. For a complete listing of course offerings, dates and tuition, please visit www.precollege.emory.edu.

Erie Community College Summer Experience: Students who are currently in high school or entering high school in September are eligible to attend Summer Camp at ECC. The cost of a camp varies from $339-$452. The following are non-credit summer camps:

The following are credit-bearing courses:

- College Composition (EN 110: 3 credit hours): This course fulfills a SUNY general education requirement. Time and locations vary (cost: $339 total)
- General Psychology (PS 100: 3 credit hours): This course fulfills a SUNY general education requirement. Time and locations vary (cost: $339 total)
- Introductory Statistics I (MT 143: 4 credit hours): This course fulfills a SUNY general education requirement. Time and locations vary (cost: $452 total)

- Digital Photography (AT 222: 3 credit hours): This course fulfills a SUNY general education requirement. Time and locations vary (cost: $339 total)

If interested in taking any of the above courses, please visit <https://www.ecc.edu/summer-college/>

Fashion Institute of Design & Merchandising (FIDM): Creative workshops and activities – opportunities in four California campuses (Los Angeles, San Francisco, Orange County, and San Diego). This includes 3 Days of Fashion, Sew Like a Designer, Pattern Drafting & Contemporary Trends, and many more Saturday classes and workshops. To register, visit <http://fidm.edu/en/calendar/summer+programs/C>

Global Works Summer Service Programs: Provides participants the opportunity to engage in community service in many different countries. For more information, please visit <https://www.globalworkstravel.com/>.

Harvard Pre-College Summer Program: Provides an academically challenging and introduction to college life for rising juniors and seniors. This program will assist students in thrive outside of the classroom. Three sessions are available: June 23 – July 5, 2019, July 7 – 19, 2019, and July 21 – August 2, 2019. For more information, including cost, please visit www.summer.harvard.edu/pre-college.

Harvard Secondary School Summer Program: For rising sophomores, juniors and seniors in which students can challenge themselves academically while earning college credit, expand their worldviews, become a stronger college applicant, and live independently. For more information, visit <https://www.summer.harvard.edu/high-school-programs/secondary-school-program>.

Ithaca College Summer College Program: This is available to rising juniors and seniors and includes both a three-week session and a one-week session. The three-week session runs from June 30 – July 19th, 2019 and programs offered at this time include Acting I, General Psychology, Health Sciences: Foundations and Careers, Media and Communication Studies, Musical Theater Performance, Sociology, Sport Media, Television Studio Production, STEM Institute Undergraduate Research, Writers Institute. The one-week session runs from June 23 – 28, 2019 and programs offered at this time include American Sign Language, Digital Music Production, Digital Photography, Fashion Essentials, Game Design, Outdoor Leadership, Screenwriting, Sports Media and Marketing, Writing College Application Essays, and Exploring the Options: Finding a Purpose and Path in College. For more information, please visit www.ithaca.edu/summercollege/.

Ithaca College Writer's Institute: Begin your writing odyssey in Ithaca. The Ithaca Writers Institute, a noncredit summer program for high school students, offers two weeks of intensive writing workshops on the campus of Ithaca College. Courses will include poetry, fiction, memoir, poetry, science fiction & fantasy, flash fiction/nonfiction, magazine editing & publishing, reading to write, writing as a critic, and writing children's literature.

The Institute runs from June 30 – July 12, 2019. Applications open January 15th. For more information, visit www.ithaca.edu/writers-institute/.

Loyola University Chicago Summer Scholars: This summer program offers a wide array of courses in Arts & Culture, Business & Leadership, Pre-Health & Wellness, Psychology, STEM fields, and Sustainability & Social Justice. Both a one-week seminar and a six-week academy are available. For more information, please visit www.luc.edu/summerscholars.

Maine Media Young Artists Camp: This is a pre-college program that has one and two-week workshops available that run from June to August in photography, filmmaking, game design, screenwriting, alt pro, documentary, and so many more. Open to students ages 14-18 and scholarships are available. For more information, please visit www.mainemedia.edu.

Marist College: Marist offers Summer pre-college programs with classes ranging from Business, Sports Communication and Pre-Law, to Psychology. Two sessions are available in New York, NY (June 30 – July 13, 2019 & July 14 – 27, 2019) and one session available in Florence, Italy with classes in Fashion, Interior Design and more. For information, please visit www.marist.edu/precollege.

Mercyhurst Summer Programs: Mercyhurst University's Summer Session is the perfect opportunity for high school students to enrich their educational experiences – and begin earning college credits – by taking college-level courses over the summer. Full-credit courses from across the curriculum are available on campus or online, offering high schoolers flexible and convenient access to Mercyhurst's faculty and learning experiences. Rising juniors and rising seniors are eligible for a discounted tuition – only $100 per credit and students from Mercy-affiliated high schools receive an even lower rate. More information can be found at www.mercyhurst.edu/summer.

National Youth Leadership Forum (NYLF) – Medicine: Take your place among the nation's highest achieving high school students to gain real-world medical career experience and explore professional career opportunities in the expanding fields of medicine and health care. You will experience the NYLF Medicine Program on a college campus in any one of 8 cities across the US, each chosen for their world-class medical universities, hospitals, facilities and research centers. NYLF is now enrolling for the summer of 2017. For more information, please visit <http://www.envisionexperience.com/explore-our-programs/nylf-medicine>.

New York Film Academy: Offers summer camps for high school students ages 14 – 17. Camps offered range from filmmaking, acting, 3D animation, broadcast journalism, photography, game design, and more. Campus locations include New York City, Miami, Florence, Italy, and so many more. For more information, please visit www.nyfa.edu/summer-camps/teens/.

New York University (NYU): Precollege programs are available to rising juniors and seniors, offering students the opportunity to experience NYU by spending six weeks (July 7 – August 16, 2019) living and learning in their community. Students take college-level courses for credit and can choose from more than 30 subjects and topics. Applications are now available. For additional information, please visit www.nyu.edu/precollege.

Northeastern University: Numerous summer programs available. When you go to the website, search “summer programs,” and there will be a complete list of courses offered. For more information, please visit <https://undergraduate.northeastern.edu/nuterm/>.

Norwich University: New England Youth Leadership Conferences are available in which participants are grouped into teams that participate in both classes and physical challenges. This is open to all high school students and it is recommended that the applicant possess a 2.5 GPA or above. The cost to attend is $100 and payment must be submitted within three weeks of the program to secure a spot. Upcoming dates are: January 25 – 27, 2019, and March 29 – March 31, 2019. For additional information, please visit <https://www.norwich.edu/all-of-admissions/790-youth-leadership-conference>.

Pratt Institute: This school offers pre-college programs at their Brooklyn campus. It is open to rising sophomores, juniors and seniors. They are on campus for nearly a month and they encounter life as an art and design college student. Upon completion of the program, students earn four elective college credits that are accepted at most colleges and universities. Students can develop their portfolio with a variety of courses, including those in architecture, art, design, fashion, creative writing, and more. Classes run in the Fall, Spring, and Summer. For more information and to register, please visit <https://www.pratt.edu/academics/continuing-education-and-professional/precollege/>

Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation & Institute: This is the Leadership and the American Presidency Program. Students will learn in the nation’s capital and intern in a setting aligned with their goals and interests, all while taking an accredited course on presidential leadership. The Summer Program runs from June 8 – August 2, 2019 and the Fall Program runs from August 28 -December 13, 2019. Register now for Summer and Fall 2019. For more information, please visit www.reaganfoundation.org/reagan-institute/.

Savannah College of Art & Design (SCAD): Summer Seminars available in Savannah and Atlanta, Georgia. Four sessions are open to high school students. For a complete list of all art/design courses offered and for more information, please visit www.scad.edu/academics/pre-college-summer-programs/scad-summer-seminars.

Sisters of Charity Hospital: Volun-TEEN program in which volunteers ages 14 – 18 give back to the community at either Sisters of Charity Hospital or St. Joseph Campus. All volunteers receive a uniform and free lunch every day they serve. For more information and to apply, please visit www.chsbuffalo.org/giving/volunteer.

Summer @ College Internship Program (CIP): Two unique programs for students with Asperger's, ADHD, and LD. For more information, please visit <http://cipworldwide.org/summer/>.

Summer Study Programs: Amazing pre-college and study abroad programs for high school students with four great schools. 2-5 week programs are available in which students receive credits, SAT/ACT preparation and enjoy weekend trips, travel the world, and experience college life. Programs are offered at Penn State University, Colorado State University, Fordham University – NYC & The Sorbonne (Paris, France). For more information, please visit www.summerstudy.com.

SUNY University at Buffalo Pre-Pharmacy Camp: This program provides information about the challenging career pathway opportunities in the profession of pharmacy and exposure to the fields of pharmacy practice and pharmaceutical sciences to interested and motivated high school students. This day camp experience incorporates active participation in a broad scope of learning experiences, including “hands-on” training in pharmacy practice skills, lectures by faculty and local Buffalo area alumni pharmacist practitioners and field trips. This is open to all high school students who have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 (83-86%). Applications are required along with an essay, resume, and letter of recommendation from a school counselor or teacher. For more information and to register, please visit <https://pharmacy.buffalo.edu/summercamp>.

The American Academy of Dramatic Arts: For ages 16 and older in which students can experience 2, 4, 5 and 7-weeks summer classes in acting, voice & speech, movement and more at either the New York or Los Angeles campuses. To learn more, visit www.aada.edu/summer.

- For ages 12-16: students are invited to train at The Academy's Conservatory for Young Actors (ACYA), which is a 4-week summer program in Los Angeles. Classes are held in Hollywood and include acting, musical theatre, improv, state combat, filmmaking and more. To learn more, visit www.aada.edu/youth.

The Experiment in International Living: Experience in Leadership Programs in India with a focus on Global Health, or South Africa with a focus on Peace, Politics and Human Rights. These programs are designed for students deeply interested in intercultural leadership, global issues and civic engagement. Please visit www.experiment.org for the application and email experiment@worldlearning.org or call 1-800-345-2929 with questions or for more information.

The George Washington University: This is a pre-college program with credit and noncredit courses for students in grades 9-11. Topics include the arts, business, communications, government & politics, healthcare, history & humanities, and STEM. For more information, please visit www.precollege.gwu.edu.

The New School (Greenwich Village, New York, NY): Pre-College Summer Intensives available for grades 3-12. Programs are offered in NY, Paris, and select locations abroad. At The New School, students will not find run-of-the-mill classes. Students discover hundreds of cutting edge, creative outlets for every age and stage. Students will learn state of the art skills and gain career insights that will put them far ahead of the curve. Extraordinary faculty includes NYC's most accomplished visionaries. For more information, please visit www.newschool.edu/admission/summer-courses.

University of Alabama: UA offers an Early College Summer Program in which students can take both online courses and courses on campus. There is a plethora of courses to choose from. Rising sophomores, juniors and seniors with GPAs of at least 3.0 are eligible to apply. For more information, include session dates and registration information, please visit www.uearlycollege.ua.edu.

University of Cambridge: Cambridge Immerse is a two-week residential, educational experience that allows participants to gain an unrivalled insight into a chosen discipline. Tutorials and seminars are taught by highly regarded tutors in an optimal learning environment that stimulates academic inquiry. With its diverse and enriching curriculum, the program equips students with the academic edge and tenacity required to explore their chosen subjects to a more advanced level. Enrollment in the program is ongoing, and students aged 15 and above are welcome to apply. For more information, please visit www.cambridgeimmerse.com.

University of Dayton Summer Honors Engineering Camp: This is open to rising sophomores, juniors and seniors who have a cumulative GPA of 3.5. Students will learn what distinguishes chemical, civil, electrical, and mechanical engineering through hands-on activities. For more information, please visit https://udayton.edu/engineering/k-12-programs/summer_honors_engineering_camp/index.php.

University of Notre Dame – The Summer Scholars Program: offers a two-week opportunity to explore a field of study at the college level, ranging from liberal arts, sciences, business, archeology, Christianity and the World Religions, debate and public speaking, life sciences, psychology, literature, research, drama, with new courses just added in astronomy, confronting poverty, and performance (voice). Open to rising high school juniors and seniors. Program dates are June 22 – July 6, 2019. Applications are due by February 19, 2019. For more information, please visit <https://precollege.nd.edu/summer-scholars/>.

University of Notre Dame – Study Abroad in Rome, Italy: This is a two-week program from June 1 – June 15, 2019 that will immerse students in the lived history and culture of the Eternal City (for rising seniors only). Applications due on January 28, 2019. For more information, please visit <https://precollege.nd.edu/study-abroad/rome/>.

University of Notre Dame – Study Abroad in Ireland: A 12-day program from July 13 – 27, 2019 to discover the rich history and culture of both bustling Dublin and bucolic Connemara, Ireland (for rising seniors only). Applications due on January 28, 2019. For more information, please visit <https://precollege.nd.edu/study-abroad/ireland/>

US Performing Arts: Numerous camps in the Performing Arts and Media are available. For more information, a full listing of locations and workshops, visit www.usperformingarts.com or call (888) 497-3553.

Worcester Polytechnic Institute (WPI) Frontiers: Frontiers challenges participants to explore the outer limits of their knowledge in science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) with current laboratory techniques and exploring unsolved problems across a wide spectrum of disciplines. Participants will be utilizing state-of-the-art technology and facilities, and enjoy added activities such as evening workshops, field trips, movies, live performances, and sports tournaments. Throughout each session, participants will focus most of their time in a Major Course and some of their time in a Minor Course. Session 1 is July 7 - 19, 2019 and Session 2 is July 21- August 2, 2019. For more information, please visit <https://www.wpi.edu/academics/pre-collegiate/summer/stem-residential/frontiers>

Worcester Polytechnic Institute (WPI) Launch: LAUNCH program participants will use state-of-the-art research and technology and work with WPI's renowned faculty to find solutions to current problems in a variety of scientific fields. The program runs from June 24-28, 2019. For more information, please visit <https://www.wpi.edu/academics/pre-collegiate/summer/stem-residential/launch>

Yale University Young Global Scholars Program: This is a summer 2018 program that will have three different blocks of sessions available:

Block 1: June 16-29, 2019

- Applied Science & Engineering
- International Affairs & Globalization
- Sustainable Development & Social Entrepreneurship

Block 2: July 7-20, 2019

- Frontiers of Science & Technology
- Literature, Philosophy, & Culture
- Politics, Law, & Economics

Block 3: July 28-August 10, 2019

- Biological & Biomedical Science
- Creative Arts & Media
- Politics, Law, & Economics
- YYGS-Beijing: Asia in the 21st Century*

The application deadline is February 6, 2019. For more information, please visit <https://globalscholars.yale.edu>