Mount Mercy Academy Athletes Attain All-Catholic Honors

Six Mount Mercy Academy Fall Athletes received post season honors this fall. Three members of the volleyball team and three members of the soccer team were accorded All-Catholic honors.

Seniors Taylor Hoch (East Aurora) and Emily Lewandowski (East Aurora), along with sophomore Katie Hughes (Orchard Park) were voted Second Team All-Catholics in volleyball. Hoch was the team’s defensive specialist. Lewandowski was the team’s top all-around player and Hughes was a strong hitter for the Magic.

Senior Abigail Hillery (Hamburg) and juniors Mariah Rullan (Buffalo) and Alesia Hamm (Buffalo) were all named First Team Soccer All-Catholics from Division B. Hillery, a four year member of the varsity team, returns to the First Team for the second straight year. She was one of the team’s leading scorers, both in goals and assists. Rullan, one of the team’s forwards, also was a top scorer for the Magic. Hamm, a mid-fielder, excelled at both the offensive and defensive ends of the field.
