Mount Mercy's Roisin Lynch Places Second in Congressional Art Competition

Sophomore Roisin Lynch (Buffalo) of Mount Mercy Academy recently was awarded second place in the 36th Annual Congressional Art Competition. Lynch was also honored with The People's Choice Award for receiving the most votes on-line for her mixed media painting of Australian model Duckie Thot. Congressman Brian Higgins presented her with a certificate acknowledging her outstanding achievement. She competed against students in both public and private schools throughout Western New York.
