Mount Mercy Academy Announces Its Valedictorian and Salutatorian

At a recent Mount Mercy Academy Honors Assembly Principal Margaret Staszak named the Class of 2016 valedictorian and salutatorian. Margaret Dedloff and Megan Fabian were acknowledged and honored for their exceptional four year academic record.

Dedloff, the daughter of Mr. John Dedloff and Ms. Camille Lupa of Gowanda finished her four years with the highest cumulative average earning the right to be the Valedictorian for the Mount Mercy Academy Class of 2016. Dedloff, in addition to her outstanding academic performance, is also an extremely active student. Some of the plethora of activities that she is involved in include: editor of the school newspaper, senior section editor of the yearbook, student government treasurer, a four year member of the volleyball program, a member of Mock Trial and a participant in the Science Olympiad. Further, she is a McAuley Scholar, a member of National Honor Society and a perennial First Honors student. After earning many scholarships Dedloff will be attending Clarkson University in the fall. She will be majoring in biology along with pre-health science advisory.

Fabian, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Fabian of West Seneca, completed her years at Mount Mercy with the second highest overall average in the class of 2016, and was named as the Salutatorian for the Class of 2016. Fabian will be attending Scranton University in the fall, on a full academic scholarship. Besides her academic achievements, Fabian is also an involved student. She is a member of the Mock Trial team, the Rowing Club team, Magic Belles, National Honor Society and Magic Belles, Mount Mercy's award winning hand bell choir. She is a minister of Holy Communion, an active volunteer in the community and has raised the funds to host a Stop Hunger Now meal packaging event that will be held on May 2, 2016.

Mount Mercy's graduation will be held at the academy on May 25th.
