Mount Mercy Academy Kicks-off Its Annual McAuley Gala

Last Thursday evening Mount Mercy Academy kicked off its 22nd annual McAuley Gala. The event, held at Resurgence Brewing Co. was the gift-gathering kick-off event for Mount Mercy’s major fundraiser. The Gala will be held on Saturday, April 28, 2018 at six in the evening at the Orchard Park Country Club.

This year the event’s co-chairmen are Thomas and Roseanne Dee and Brian and Wendy Lewandowski. Roseanne Donovan Dee, a 1969 graduate of Mount Mercy Academy, is the founder and President of RT Dee and Associates- a training and human resource consulting firm. Her husband Thomas is the President of the Erie Canal Harbor Development Corporation. Brian Lewandowski is the founder and managing partner of Lewandowski and Associates, a West Seneca-based law firm. Wendy Lewandowski is a teacher and coach in the Orchard Park Central School District. They are the proud parents of Mount Mercy Academy senior Emily Lewandowski, a member of the school’s softball and volleyball teams, as well as the student government president.

The guest auctioneer for the evening will be Kevin O’Connell, the chief meteorologist at Channel 2 WGRZ.

Additional events supporting the McAuley Gala will be announced soon. More information can be obtained at www.mtmercy.org or by contacting Liz Redanz at 825-8796, ext 306 or eredanz@mtmercy.org.
