Mount Mercy Hosts "Portraits" A Student Art Show

On Wednesday March 29th, the portraits created by the students of Mount Mercy Art teachers Jacqueline Welch and Jennifer Licata were shown for the first time. The exhibit, displayed in the St. Catherine Art Gallery, will run from March 29th until April 7th. The art work may be viewed during regular school hours.

The artwork work was created by students in Advanced Placement Art for their portfolios, Drawing and Painting and Digital Photography. All four grade levels have works being shown in "Portraits".
