Mount Mercy Academy Holds Its Third Quarter Honors Assembly

Recently Mount Mercy Academy held its Third Quarter Honors Assembly. Special senior honors, academic and athletic awards and the recognition of the recipients of First Honors all took place during the assembly.

A total of eighty-seven students earned First Honors. A student attains First Honors by earning an average of 95 or above. Sixteen freshmen, twenty sophomores, twenty-nine juniors and twenty-one seniors attained this prodigious status. Second Honors (90-94.99) was achieved by 82 students and Merit Roll status was reached by 21 students.

Guidance Counselor Jessica Bakkila also announced the recipients of the Frances Warde Honors for each grade. This award recognizes the student from each grade whose quarter average improves the most from the previous quarter. The Frances Warde Honors were earned by freshman Melanie Bebak (Cheektowaga), sophomore Nadia Smith (Buffalo), junior Gina Slattery (Buffalo) and senior Caitlin McNamara (Buffalo).
