Mount Mercy Academy Sponsors Blood Donation

Last Wednesday Mount Mercy Academy held its annual blood drive. The drive, sponsored by UNYTS, was coordinated by Catherine Luhr, Mount Mercy's Assistant Principal and the Donate Life Club. Mount Mercy had thirty donors, collecting 30 pints of blood. These 30 pints have the capability of saving up to 90 lives.

The students were proud to do their part to help out the Western New York community. "I enjoy helping people and it was meaningful to donate blood that will be used to help others in need," junior Jessica Osuch (Buffalo) commented.
