West Seneca Residents Honored At Mount Mercy Athletic Awards Assembly

A special sports award assembly was held recently at Mount Mercy Academy. The varsity basketball team was honored by the Western New York Girls Basketball Officials with the Brian Hanson Sportsmanship Award. The award was presented by the organization's president Michael Talluto to Coach John Glose and his team. Mount Mercy was selected by the officials from Western New York's 109 girls' basketball teams. Junior Brigid Lempko is a member of the varsity basketball team at Mount Mercy.

Also honored were the five Mount Mercy varsity hockey players who represented the school on the Monsignor Martin team that won the Federation championship, including West Seneca resident and team captain Catie Radwan. The team finished 15-0.

Athletic Director Douglas Webster presented special awards such as the Coach's award which is given to the athlete who exhibits the best effort, attitude, dedication and team spirit. Junior Emmaline Robinson of West Seneca was the winner of the Coach's award for JV bowling.
