Mount Mercy Academy Holds Its Third Quarter Honors Assembly

Recently Mount Mercy Academy held its Third Quarter Honors Assembly. Special senior honors, academic and athletic awards and the recognition of the recipients of First Honors all took place during the assembly.

A total of 93 students earned First Honors. A student attains First Honors by earning an average of 95 or above. Thirteen freshmen, 21 sophomores, 23 juniors and 36 seniors reached this prodigious status. Second Honors (90-94.99) was achieved by 58 students and the standard for Merit Roll 85-89.99) was reached by 33 students. A total of 184 students attained honor roll status during the third quarter.

Guidance Counselor Jessica Bakkila also announced the recipients of the Frances Warde Honors for each grade. This award recognizes the student from each grade whose quarter average improves the most from the previous quarter. The Frances Warde Honors were earned by freshman Olivia Coleman (Lackawanna), sophomore Maura Kull (West Seneca), junior Ashley Schenk (Lackawanna) and senior Tina Arroyo (Buffalo).
